

13th June 2019

- 11.30 – 13.00 Registration, lunch and networking
- 13.00 – 13.15 Introduction and Welcome to Belfast – Chief Fire Officer, Northern Ireland FRS
- 13.15 – 14.00 Conference Scene Setting and update on NFCC Operational Communications Projects – CFO Darryl Keen, NFCC Lead on Operational Communications
- 14.00 – 15.00 Google keynote address – Google and the UK Public Sector – Alistair Doe, GCP Sales – UK&I Public Sector, Google
- 15.00 – 15.30 Command and Control Communications in the Military – what can we learn – Jeremy Brookes, Senior Principal Engineer, Principal Adviser – Discreet Command Systems, Counter Terrorism & Security Division
- 15.30 – 16.00 Coffee and networking
- 16.00 – 16.30 Update on ESN and what this looks like for the FRS – Ian Taylor, Home Office
- 16.30 – 17.00 Understanding an emergency call and the new BT infrastructure – Lorna Stephenson, BT
- 17.00 – 17.30 Panel Q & A Session
- 17.30 – 18.30 Drinks reception and networking

Evening – No formal arrangements so delegates can explore Belfast at their leisure

14th June 2019

- 09.30 – 09.45 Welcome back – Darryl Keen, NFCC Lead on Operational Communications
- 09.45 – 10.30 North West Wild Fires Case Study – a Multi-Agency Incident. What went well and lessons learnt with regard to command, control and communications during the 2018 Wild Fires – Tim Murrell and Colin Hickson, Lancashire FRS
- 10.30 – 11.00 Effective command and control in multi-national, multi-agency disaster response operations: Standards, practices, lessons learned and innovations – David Jones, Chief Executive Rescue Global
- 11.00 – 11.15 Q & A
- 11.15 – 11.45 Coffee and networking
- 11.45 – 12.15 Multi Agency Incident Transfer – Case Study – Tony Bracey, Welsh Ambulance Service NHS Trust – Programme Director – ESMCP

- 12.15 – 12.45 How satellites can help deliver ubiquitous connectivity for blue light services – John Vesey, Catapult
- 12.45 – 13.45 Lunch and networking
- 13.45 – 14.45 Fire-Ground Communications
- Overview of what UK FRSs are doing with regards to command, control and communications (the here and now):
 - Digital radios
 - BA comms
 - Bluetooth
 - IS Vs non-IS
 - Command and control vehicles / solutions
 - Possible collaborative procurement opportunities for the sector
- 14.45 – 15.00 Conclusions and Close
-